

Canada Prays
Diocese of Yukon-4th Week
Prayers of Oblation

Sunday Oct 30

God of Love, out of your generous love, you gave your Son Jesus Christ to be to be a sacrifice for sin on our behalf, we the members of the Diocese of Yukon offer and present unto thee, O Lord ourselves, our souls and bodies, to be a reasonable, holy and living sacrifice unto thee. And although we are unworthy, yet we beseech thee to accept this our bound and duty and service, not weighing our merits, but pardoning our offenses; through Jesus Christ our Lord, to whom with thee and the Holy Ghost, be all honour and glory, world without end. Amen

Monday Oct 31

Eternal Father: You created time in order that all creation would glorify you. You have given your people 24 hours a day to serve you. May we so commit our time to serving you, that in work, rest and play we glorify your holy and eternal name. In Jesus name. Amen

Tuesday Nov 1

O God our great provider. In your generosity you have ensure enough food and water for the whole world. You have given us the responsibility to distribute what you have given to provide for the world. May we realize that what we have is not ours but yours and so fill us with your generosity that we would share what we have with those in need. For the love of your son Jesus Christ we pray. Amen.

Wednesday Nov 2

Lord, as of old, you still give us skills and talents. By using these talents, we gain useful employment, security for our families, and provision for our family needs. Father, we are conscience of the many places where our skills and talents can be a benefit to others and to the church. We give these skills and talents back to you. Show us Lord where and how to use what you have given us to the benefit of others and to your glory. Then give us such a desire and love that we would reach out in your name to change the world around us. Father, we pray these things in the name of Jesus and through the power of the Holy Spirit. Amen

Thursday Nov 3

Creator: You have blessed us with relationships. Relationships in our families, relationships in our work, Relationships in our neighbourhood, at the grocery store, in the park, Getting gas at the garage, etc. In these relationships we communicate our joys, tragedies, angers, and loves. In these relationships we receive and give encouragement we give and receive love, we give and receive strength. Creator, we give our relationships over to you. May we be conscience of your awesome love and salvation that you have showered onto us. And may we be so filled with your love and salvation that we would share it through our words and actions with all those you have blessed us to be in relationship with. In your Love we pray. Amen

Friday Nov 4

Eternal one: The snow has come, the ice is here, and the bitter winds eat through the thin fabric of the clothing of the poor and homeless. May, as our thoughts are turned to the family in the stable in Bethlehem, we be moved to help those who still sleep in our streets and lanes, may we be moved to give sacrificially of what we have been blessed with to help those who still hunger for bread. May we be moved to give of our time and talents to relieve the hurts and loneliness of many in our community. May we give the warmth of your love to one who is lonely and the warmth of a coat to the one who is cold. Move us to action so that many would know the peace of your presence in their lives this day. Amen.

Saturday Nov 5

Father, once again we the members of the Diocese of Yukon commit our lives, our families, and all we have to your service. May we so give of ourselves that others would see Jesus in us. May we so give ourselves to your service that we would be channels of your grace, your love, your salvation and your provision to those of the community and world around us.

Make me a channel of your peace
Where there is hatred let me bring your love
Where there is injury, your pardon Lord
And where there is doubt true faith in You

Make ma a channel of your peace
Where there is despair in life let me bring hope
Where there is darkness only light
And where there's sadness ever joy

Oh, Master grant that I may never seek
So much to be consoled as to console
To be understood as to understand
To be loved as to love with all my soul

Make me a channel of your peace
It is in pardoning that we are pardoned
It is in giving to all man that we receive
And in dying that we are born to eternal life
